I. MATTERS CALLING FOR ACTION BY THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL OR BROUGHT TO ITS ATTENTION

A. Draft decision

1. The Commission on Sustainable Development recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft decision:

Report of the Commission on Sustainable Development on its organizational session and provisional agenda for the first session of the Commission

The Economic and Social Council takes note of the report of the Commission on Sustainable Development on its organizational session and approves the provisional agenda for the first session of the Commission, set out below:

PROVISIONAL AGENDA FOR THE FIRST SESSION OF THE COMMISSION ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

1. Adoption of the agenda and other organizational matters.

2. Adoption of a multi-year thematic programme of work for the Commission.

3. Issues relating to the future work of the Commission.

4. Exchanges of information regarding implementation of Agenda 21 at the national level:

   (a) Guidelines to the Secretariat for organizing information provided by Governments, including information in the form of periodic communications or national reports and national Agenda 21 action plans regarding the activities they undertake to implement Agenda 21, the problems they face, such as those related to financial resources and technology transfer, and other environment and development issues they find relevant;

   (b) Ways in which, upon request, the United Nations system and bilateral donors are assisting countries, particularly developing countries, in the preparation of periodic communications or national reports and national Agenda 21 action plans.

5. Progress in the incorporation of recommendations of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in the activities of international organizations, and measures undertaken by the Administrative Committee on Coordination to ensure that sustainable development principles are incorporated in programmes and processes within the United Nations system.

6. Progress achieved in facilitating and promoting the transfer of environmentally sound technologies, cooperation and capacity-building.

7. Initial financial commitments, financial flows and arrangements to give effect to the decisions of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development from all available funding sources and mechanisms, including those referred to in paragraph 33.14 of Agenda 21.

8. Provisional agenda for the second session of the Commission.

9. Other matters.

10. Consideration of the outcome of the discussion on the above items, as well as of urgent and major emerging issues, at the high-level meeting of the first session of the Commission.

11. Adoption of the report of the Commission on its first session.

B. Decision calling for action by the Council

2. The following decision adopted by the Commission calls for action by the Economic and Social Council:

Multi-year thematic programme of work for the Commission

At its 6th meeting, on 26 February 1993, the Commission on Sustainable Development:

(a) Took note of the report of the Secretary-General on the outline of a multi-year thematic programme of work for the Commission, 1/ and requested the Secretary-General to prepare a draft of such a programme for consideration and adoption by the Commission at its first session, taking into account comments and views expressed during the organizational session of the Commission;

(b) Recommended that the following clusters of chapters of Agenda 21 be considered as the basis for the programme of work:

(i) Critical elements of sustainability (chapters 2-5);

(ii) Financial resources and mechanisms (chapter 33);

(iii) Education, science, transfer of environmentally sound technologies, cooperation and capacity-building (chapters 16 and 34-37);

(iv) Decision-making structures (chapters 8 and 38-40);

(v) Roles of major groups (chapters 23-32);

(vi) Health, human settlements and fresh water (chapters 6, 7, 18 and 21);

(vii) Land, desertification, forests and biodiversity (chapters 10-15);

(viii) Atmosphere, oceans and all kinds of seas (chapters 9 and 17);

(ix) Toxic chemicals and hazardous wastes (chapters 19, 20 and 22);

1/ E/CN.17/1993/2.

(c) Decided that the programme of work should be based on an integrated approach to environment and development, taking full account of the principles of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development 2/ and all other aspects of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development, and paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 47/191 of 22 December 1992, and should reflect the cross-linkages between and among sectoral and cross-sectoral components of Agenda 21;

(d) Recommended that clusters (i) to (v) be considered by the Commission on an annual basis, with a particular focus on certain chapters of Agenda 21 within each cluster, as appropriate;

(e) Further recommended that clusters (vi) to (ix) be considered by the Commission on a multi-year basis;

(f) Requested the Secretary-General, in formulating his proposals for a programme of work for consideration by the Commission, to take into account the calendar of major forthcoming intergovernmental meetings, negotiating processes and international decades in the economic, social and related fields, such as those related to the elaboration of an international convention to combat desertification in those countries experiencing serious drought and/or desertification, particularly in Africa, the Global Conference on the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the United Nations Conference on Straddling Fish Stocks and Highly Migratory Fish Stocks, the International Conference on Population and Development, the World Summit for Social Development, the Fourth World Conference on Women, the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II) and the International Decade for Natural Disaster Reduction, and any recommended follow-up activities associated with above-mentioned conferences.

C. Decision brought to the attention of the Council

3. The following decision adopted by the Commission is brought to the attention of the Council:

Issues relating to the future work of the Commission

At its 6th meeting, on 26 February 1993 the Commission on Sustainable Development decided:

(a) That at each session, on the basis of its agenda, it would determine the need for and the number of informal negotiating groups, as well as the need for other specific sessional arrangements for its work, on the understanding that the number of such groups would not exceed three during a particular session and that no more than two of them would meet simultaneously;

(b) That, in preparing the agendas of its forthcoming sessions, it would determine which reports were to be considered from all relevant organs, organizations, programmes and institutions of the United Nations system, as well as international financial institutions, including the Global
